Billy Adams is the son of a retiring Texas Ranger. He has been raised to know right from wrong, but like many young men, he wants to do what he wants to do! His bad decisions eventually lead him to a hangmans noose and without a last minute intervention his life seems destined to end before it really gets going. The Legend of Billy Adams is a cowboy western morality story that has been told around campfires across America. The positive messages of gun safety, obeying parents, and rejecting peer pressure makes this a great bedtime story for every young cowboy. The brilliant artwork of Andy Davenport bring this story to life. His unique ability to capture the moment in brilliant color and action make him one of Americas premier illustrators. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
