

Beginner's German

By Max Walter

Read Books, United Kingdom, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Bilingual. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BEGINNERS GERMAN is the basic book of the Walter-Krause German Series. One purpose of this introductory book is to initiate the learner into the language of every-day life as well as into the literary language, thereby insuring a realistic vocabulary. As we start with the immediate environment of the pupil, we have the best of foundations for interest and for success. At all times we are taking cognizance of the living adolescent and not of abstract pedantry. The work is an outgrowth of actual class-room experience. The first lessons, at least, are intended quite as much for the teacher as for the pupil. We beg leave to give the following hints as to an effective mode of using - although no teacher is expected to tie himself down to one particular system 1 Develop the material orally, with books closed. 2 Ascertain by questions and answers whether the pupils have the proper understanding of the oral work. Every answer should be repeated by the class. 3 Call for a continuous oral review of the whole with...
