Much of this is necessarily lost on the piano, but if the player takes care to bring out the melodies clearly by a proper pressure of the fingers, subordinating minor notes, he will at least suggest these very delicate and lovely effects. //. The Unfinished Symphony Second Movement HIS Andante con moto is even more intensely Schubertian than the first movement, in its amenity and suavity of expression and its luxuriant variety of color. Formally, it is but two or three melodies slightly developed and repeated; but its color is so rich that its final effect leaves the mind amply satisfied. After two introductory measures, the violins sing a graceful theme of four measures, which is made the subject of the whole of the first page, taking on, at the fifth system, a more martial boldness of style. A gradual diminuendo prepares the way for the second theme, a mournful, yearning melody played by the clarinet, against a syncopated accompaniment in the strings (page 29, the third system, the second measure). Here the subtlety of the modulation is especially noticeable. How wonderfully the high A is made to serve as a sort of pivot about which the harmony revolves, first into D-major (the seventh and eighth measures of the theme) and then into F-major (the ninth measure) 1 The effect is ravishing. It is like the ever-novel rifts and vistas that open up in clouds at sunset. At page 30, the...
