Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Free Niagara N a report to the Legislature of 1880 the Commissioners of the State Survey used these words: Within certain limits at Niagara there are probably a larger number of distinct and rare qualities of beauty, in combinations of rock, foliage, mist, sky and water, than in any other equal space of the earth s surface, and although the gorge of the river for miles below is very interesting, and the broad, smooth water about the Rapids, with its low shores, is an important feature of a marvelous landscape effect. The grounds of attraction in these more distant parts being more nearly paralleled elsewhere, the distinctive interest of Niagara, as compared with that of other attractive scenery, is remarkably circumscribed and concentrated. These matchless conditions. So forcibly displayed by the Commissioners, must be held to be the most important factor in making Free Niagara a possibility. Once convinced that the purchase of a narrow neck of land would assure them control of the most beautiful region ever seen by man in his waking hours, the people of new-york were not long in deciding to ratify the bargain.
