AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This This book is about the bravery and courage of a nine year old little boy name Jay Jay. One day, Jay Jay was waiting for his dad to finish feeding his little brother Jordan. This was to be a special day for him, because Jay Jay s dad had promised that the two of them would spend the day together. As Jay Jay waited for his dad, he started to play with his exercise ball. Jay Jay loved playing with his ball. In the family room was a large picture frame propped up against the wall for the family portrait. However, Jay Jay did not see the frame. Jay Jay jumped on his ball and began to roll, right into the glass picture frame. Bang! The sound could be heard throughout the house. Jay Jay s mother and father came running to see what had happened. And so does his little brother Jordan. There they found Jay Jay with a cut wrist, and a broken picture frame. Jay Jay remained calm. And although his injury was very painful, Jay Jay never shed a tear. Jay Jay knew that he had to be brave because Jordan his little brother was watching. After all, he was the big brother and he could not allow Jordan see him cry. This is an excellent book for children who have been injured or are fearful of doctors and hospitals. They will love it!.
