

The Raven Redux and Other Poems

By Alexander Bentley

Sosii Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 150 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. From the author of EVERYSLEEP: The Beauty of Dark Silence, comes another bone-chilling foray into modern romanticism with a gothic twist. The Raven Redux and Other Poems is a collection of dark poetry from poet and writer, Alexander Bentley. From the FOREWORD: In Edgar Allan Poe's short life, he accomplished a great many things. One of his most famous works was a poem titled, The Raven. That poem consistently dominates as one of the most powerful pieces involving the macabre side of life, darkness, and the inevitability of death. Alexander Bentley created The Raven Redux and Other Poems as a nod to the legacy that Poe left behind and has created a masterpiece that reminds us about the true, often lonely and unknown thoughts about death. The entire book is an immersive journey through dying, death, and dealing with the loss of others. Alexander says poetry can penetrate the most quickly into the readers subconscious mind. A person has many barriers, emotionally and mentally. Poetry bypasses those protections and implants itself into the readers mind. This is one reason I love poetry so much. I also love that...
