

Is Roy Home

By Randall Mawer

Avignon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 132 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. For the many fans of Randall Mawer's first novel, Frogs Field, his new teen fiction novel, Is Roy Home is a long-awaited treat. Roy Hough, Frog Mott's best friend, is now a high school student as is another of Frog's friends, Arthur Shell. Roy is a star of his high school baseball team while Arthur is a loner, befriended only by Roy and Connie Dunn, Roy's friend and the female manager of the boys' baseball team. The story follows the fortunes of Roy's high school team through a season, Arthur's blossoming into a sociable young grownup, the burgeoning relationship between Roy and Connie and the role all three of the young friends find themselves in when Roy's mother inherits a house and money and becomes a potential victim of a young tennis pro who wants to take advantage of her. This is a story of small-town, Midwest America in the 1950s with all the endearing qualities that make that era remain in the minds of many as one of our country's last times of innocence. Reviews

It is one of the best books. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. You won't feel monotony at any moment of the time (that's what catalogues are for regarding in the event you check with me).
