Michael Christopher. Excerpt: His heart cried as they embraced and slithered like two snakes in the garden of evil. The forbidden fruit being tasted was the sweetest he ever indulged. They vowed words of love, they swore a life together but in truth, she was married and they were only able to steal minutes in the day. Each day he would watch the Free Wind ride off to another man s arms. The vision was brutal it stabbed him in chest. At night, he would sleep on the empty floor wondering if it ever gets better. He cursed the gods for not delivering his love to him in the dark. They were daytime lovers he never saw her glow under the pale moonlight. Spike was only a paramour who stole another man s woman.
