Brooklyn Indie Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 60 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.1in. Do you want to take blue pill, or do you want to survive? This is the book that will help you separate the truth from the lies. Sadie Timpson, a holistic therapist, is at a beach house with family members celebrating her daughters college graduation, when an argument erupts over whether or not a global force known as the NWO, or the Illuminati, controls their lives. The disagreement centers on whether it is best to remain happy and ignorant, or knowledgeable and prepared. Sadies children insist on the former point of view, leaving her unable to share the things she knows with them. After theyve dispersed, Sadie gathers her response in a letter. As her thoughts on how our health, political system, and religions have been tampered with, and what to do about it, pours forth, the letter grows, and becomes not a treatise with footnotes and indexes, but a missive of love from a mothers heart. A Mothers New World Order (NWO) Handbook is a wake-up call to all the worlds children and their parents and is to be used as a jumpstart to learning. Every part of society is filled with lies and deceit and most of us follow without question, reviewer, Luvs2Read Joel MacIntosh, Pre-Market Reviews: E. Lane Keller has mastered the art of faction, bending the lines of fiction with reality, offering in a Mothers Guide to the New World order a treatise that serves as an enjoyable handbook or informative read. From the Publisher, Truth in 10 Books: Cutting edge information is offered in clear prose free of dogma and fear, providing direction on how to survive, and flourish, in our current debilitating state. One of those rarities that seamlessly blend...
