Christians everywhere have been waking up to the fact they've bought into a fake belief system. One that makes them become something they're not. This system of belief can be called religion or a religious spirit. Whatever you want to call it, there can be devastating affects on the minds of those who have subjected themselves to its captivity. Everything from performance driven burnout to becoming a completely different person, the religious spirit sucks the life out of anyone who subjects themselves to it. The Pharisees of old mastered its formula in order to hold people in bondage to their selfish demands. This kind of mentality is still very much in operation today and its goal is to enslave those who are desperate for approval, acceptance and love. Religion as a whole, is likened unto a merit system, with a mission to promise a reward for best behavior and forced submission. This is why Jesus took issue with the mindset behind this spirit operating in the soul of the religious elite as he walked the earth. You see, righteousness has little to do with making sure we cross all of our T's and dot all of our I's trying to get everything just right. Righteousness has more to do with what Christ did on the Cross at Calvary so that we could be reconciled back to him through relationship. Righteousness or Right standing also has a lot to do with God's nature of generosity or having a lifestyle of being generous in all areas, more than mere rule keeping. Love gives, control takes. Fakery is the master of control, because it causes people to strive,...
