

Where Will I Sleep Tonight? (Paperback)

By Theodora Gurtlinger

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There she thinks, the woman on a mission, what she sees and reads changes everything for these new lives. She wants you to know we are out there, and there is another way. Help is on the way. Do you feel stuck in your life? Looking for purpose? Take the journey. Take your life back. Be free from the situations that own you. This true story brought one woman, the ninth child of twelve, from a farm to the streets of New York City as a foster mother. The unique children that shared her home and love will bring tears and strength to those who are weak. Just know when you make the choice of life that you are never alone. This is the story of those who were the decided and the people who bring it to full circle. This book is for you. May we all find protection and inner peace. Her life once the leap was made changed uncertainties to advocacy and beyond. Once the choice of life was made, her work gladly began. Her life was now...
