He is lying immobile in a hospital bed, in an apparently unresponsive coma. However, he is conscious and can hear everything going on around him. The whole aspect of being fed intravenously and having to be cleaned up and bathed by unseen nurses leaves him feeling thoroughly degraded. His anger towards the man who caused his injuries festers in his mind and there s nothing he can do to exact revenge. Because he is able to hear every word that his new wife, Carole, says to him and everything else going on around him, David is living his worst nightmare.
