Back Yard Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Winner of the League of Utah Writer s Diamond Quill for Youth Fiction, Leona Me, Helen Marie is sure to delight readers with its glimpse into yesteryear. Seven-year-old Helen Marie Heffner has a knack for getting into trouble, followed close behind by her older sister, Leona Mae. Whether it s walking the barn beams like a tightrope, fooling the neighbor boys into thinking they re being chased by a fiery jack-o-lantern, or making a mess rather than transferring a pattern for Mama s Christmas surprise, Helen comes out the winner every time. But life is not always fun and games in 1922 for this southern Indiana family. In the wake of the Depression of the previous two years, the girls and their mama are often left alone in Hancock s Chapel while their papa travels to find work to keep the family finances alive. Lately, Mama s been showing signs of not feeling well, and Helen is stuck at home, missing the entire school year while she recuperates from the rheumatic fever that struck her the year before. Mama fears the worst is about to happen. Everything from the barn owl, to the chicken thief, the stranger who passed by one evening to a poor neighbor-boy who falls into the ravine, all point to signs of trouble to come. And sure enough, it does.
