By Eugenia a Haisley

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This novel, set in the small Midwestern town of Creviston, updates the lives of four friends who were first introduced in the author s first novel, Small Town Wives. Teresa and her husband, Ted have three children. She is reluctant to come to terms with the paternity of her youngest son, Ben, who was conceived during an affair with Doug Jones, her high school sweetheart Is the father her husband or her lover? She is forced to face the truth, along with the consequences, when a shocking discovery comes to light. Janet has recovered from the suicide of her lover, Dave Brown, who killed himself rather than suffer the shame of his embezzlement. Janet and Dave s widow, Debbie have bonded in friendship and Debbie is relentless in finding Janet a steady boyfriend. She introduces her to the new football coach and they begin an interesting, if not steamy, relationship. Janet s ex-husband Robert, returns to town after five years and stirs up long dormant emotions. Janet finally has to make a choice between these two men. As the...
