By Sherry R Gardner, Phd Sherry R Gardner

Kiwe Publishing, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Dr. Sherry Gardner presents proactive, biblically-based counseling materials, rather than theoretical and abstract, in an easy to understand format. The author writes to inform, to excite, to instruct, to confirm, to enlarge, and to promote spiritual and ministerial growth in its readers. A few objectives Dr. Gardner had in mind are: to help Christians to think biblically about counseling and related issues to help understand people and their problems with the use of scripture to further the approach of scripture that is correct and practical in answer to the question, how should we study and apply the scriptures to clarify what Christian counseling means. The author writes on the subject of ethics, crisis counseling, pre-marital and marital counseling, and divorce counseling. Also included is a chapter on teen suicide. In the chapter Evidence of Truth the author describes what that means and provides some insight into various truths based on that meaning. This book is written for those who want to improve their skills in serving others and offers many practical, useful, and stimulating insights.
