Anchor, 2007. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Magnificent." The New Yorker "A triumph . . . Hughes knows 19th-century England intimately . . . the result is a narrative that could have come straight from Trollope. Vicars and curates, tradesmen's families edging up the social ladder, tangled marriage plots for lovers of Barsetshire, it's all here." Laura Shapiro, The New York Times Book Review "Peppy . . . Smart . . . Tells vivid personal stories . . . The author's intelligence never deserts her." Wendy Smith, Washington Post Book World "Enthralling . . . Having read Ms. Hughes, one wants immediately to read Beeton . . . [Beeton] speaks to the universal condition of female life." Barbara Amiel, Wall Street Journal "Absorbing . . . Excellent . . . Nostalgia for handmade items, worry over adulterated food, a healthy market for cookbooks . . . We have a lot in common with the early Victorian era, at least with regard to broad trends toward domesticity." Benjamin Lytal, The New York Sun "Scrupulously researched, definitive . . . Mrs. Beeton emerges as a fascinating blend of Betty Crocker and Emily Post, with a little Martha Stewart or Nigella Lawson thrown in for good measure . . . Hughes's searching social eye does wonders with the small cache of letters between Isabella and Sam, written during their courtship . . . She constructs a detailed picture of fashions and social customs at the high-water mark of the Victorian age. For readers of Dickens and Trollope, this section of the book is pure gold." William Grimes, The New York Times "A terrific book, filled with astute observation and telling detail about the growth of an idea, or fantasy, of domesticity . . . Later...
