Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from City Report, 1992-1993: City of Rochester, New Hampshire Since becoming City Manager in February 1993, there have been some trying times, but the good times have far outweighed them. 1 was hired by Council with the primary goal of working to help put the community on a solid financial footing. To that end we have: 1. Conducted a revaluation of all real estate within the City 2. Prepared a comprehensive Capital Improvements Program covering the next six years 3. Made real strides in eliminating the deficits in our water and sewer funds 4. Contained costs in City operations to avoid large increases in the tax rate A good deal remains to be done but I feel we are turning the corner. Council will have before it a comprehensive financial strategy that will enable us to be on a solid financial basis by the year 2000. Even though the year 2000 sounds like a long way off, it is only five years down the road. Last year George Bald mentioned that we were working with the United States Environmental Protection Agency to find a solution to the wastewater treatment requirements. At this time that issue has yet to be resolved. The City's position is that we must do something and we will, but at the same time we will not agree to a solution that would unduly burden you, our customers. If Council/Manager government is going to work in Rochester, it is going to require a commitment from all of us. My role as Manager is to operate the community on a sound and businesslike basis. The Manager is not an elected official and thus Managers do not provide political leadership....
