

Baker's Will (Paperback)

By Gary Hill

Green Ivy, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Baker's Will is a hard charging tale of love, greed and death. It was conceived in the minds of two, old men; one black, one white, one a former slave, the other a former slave owner; each steeped in his own past, each unwilling to accept the possibilities of the future; each stubborn as mules. One hundred years later, death would take center stage among the living and hell would be waiting in the wings. Michael Evans is a former Heavyweight boxing champion turned detective for the New York City police department who finds himself embedded in a web of violence and death. His family is savagely murdered and he almost lost his own life to the wrath of a hundred year old will. Laura Sanders is a lawyer fresh out of law school. She had always been unlucky at love until she met Michael Evans. Together they would experience a world gone mad and death would land on their doorstep. True love has its own rewards and out of their collective despair would come a new beginning with new hopes...
