Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is one of the most incredible ebooks I have ever gone through. You will not feel monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me).

With little hope of success I commenced the treatment by water. My prescription was the following t the patient to be placed in an empty bathing vat twice a day, and several buckets of cold water to be thrown over him; after the affusion, to be returned to bed and well covered, a little cold Water to be introduced into his mouth every half hour, and two clysters to be given daily. After this treatment had been pursued for two days, or on the sixtieth day of the disease, the skin felt already moist, and the clysters were discontinued, as there had been several loose stools. On the third and fourth day, towards the evening, a rather copious perpiration, continuing till the morning, ensued. At its cessation affusion was performed, and the patient wrapped in a wet sheet, in which he passed the night, sleeping occasionally. During the day he slept at times, and gave signs of a desire to make water, and take food, which he had not done before. About the seventh day the action of the skin continued during the night and day, with a slight interval only towards three o clock in the afternoon, at which time the patient was washed with water at 59 of Fah., and the wet sheets and affusion were remitted. From this period convalescence became very perceptible, although...
