Every letter in it should always have the same sound. This sound should be one common to all the leading Aryan languages, and hence present no difficulty to a person speaking any one of them. Diphthongs, digraphs, and double consonants should all be omitted as misleading. The meaning should never depend on tone, accent, quantity of vowels, nor rising and falling inflections of the voice. All these are inadequate and unnecessary expedients of the linguistic faculty. The vowels should be limited to the five pure vowels: a, e, i, o, a, pronounced as in Italian, and all impure or modified vowel sounds, as the German a, o, it, the French a, the English u (as in use), o (as in not), and the neutral vowel u (in but) should be discarded. All the Aryan tongues named possess the five pure vowels, but not all the...
