This is the one question to which so many are longing to find the answer. When we turn to the Bible we find a clear and simple answer to this fundamental question: the purpose of life is to know, and to love, and to walk with God-that is, to see God. The remarkable central reality of Christianity is that God has made himself known in such a way that he is understandable, accessible, and desirable to the simplest and most fearful of us. He has done so in his Son, through whom he made the world and who, having humbled himself to take on our flesh and blood to redeem us from sin and death, has sat down at the right hand of his Father. That Son is Jesus. Nowhere else can we fully see God but in the face of Jesus Christ. The theme of We Would See Jesus is: JESUS. He has come to take us out of slavery to sin and self and to...
