APPEAL BOOK - NEW YORK SUPREME COURT

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 286 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.6in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1899 edition. Excerpt: . . . by plaintiffs, and the number of pieces, in regard to which matters there is no dispute. The important letter is that of Oct. 4th (Ex. B). This letter must be divided into two parts. 1st: The offer to purchase, which, if accepted, would create a contract of sale binding upon the defendants. 2d. A request for some kind of an answer by return mail. A refusal of the offer to be signified in a particular way i. e. , if the offer is rejected please send here for this piece (fol. 34). The offer to purchase was complete in all respects, the price was definite--80 cents a yard--also the amount. Had the plaintiffs signified their acceptance in any way upon receipt of this letter, by message, letter, or delivery, there would be no doubt; the exact manner of acceptance would have been of no import. Had they, on Oct. 5th, as they did subsequently on Oct. 9th, . e. , sent the goods with the same invoice, there could be no question of their acceptance. The defendants would have been admittedly liable for the price and the defendants could have forced plaintiffs to deliver the balance at the same price, or held the plaintiffs liable to them in damages. This brings us to the second part of defendants letter. In their letter the defendants ask for an answer by return mail and in case of rejection to send for sample piece. This must be...
