

THE Cat of Bubastes: A Tale of Ancient Egypt

By George A. Henty

Fireship Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 344 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.2in. x 1.1in. With 40 pages of additional articles, references, and bibliographies of recommended reading. The Cat of Bubastes is the earliest book in the Henty chronology. It is set in 1450 BC, about the midpoint of the reign of the Egyptian Pharaoh Thutmose III. During this period, Egypt experienced unprecedented growth, with Thutmose leading his armies in no fewer than 17 military campaigns, from Syria in the north to Nubia in the south. Amuba is a young prince of a tribe called the Rebu. When his land is attacked by the Egyptians, he is captured and, along with his chariot driver Jethro, sent back to Egypt as slaves. Amuba is placed in service to Chebron, the son of the high priest. One day, by accident, Chebron kills the sacred cat of the City of Bubastes. The penalty for this act is death, which sets up a variety of harrowing adventures as they attempt to escape back to Amuba's native land. Besides being a terrific adventure, Henty gives the reader an encyclopedic insight into the culture, religion, and everyday life of ancient Egypt. Hentys History Series - Learning History...

READ ONLINE
[7.68 MB]

Reviews

Completely essential read book. I could possibly comprehend every little thing using this written e book. You wont sense monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me).

-- Rosendo Douglas DVM

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.

-- Ervin Crona