M., of Detroit, was elected Fletcher Professor of Law; Charles M. Gayley beinit abseit on leave in Europe, and B. L. D Ooge having resigned his place as Instructor in Latin, Andrew C. McLaughlin, A. B., was appointed in his stead. The title of Thomas M. Cooley was changed from Professor of History to Professor of American History and Constitutional Law. The resignation of T. J. Wrampelmeier, Assistant Professor of Organic Chemistry and Pharmacy, was accepted. Many of the graduates of the Law School will hear with regret of the resignations of Professor Kent and Professor Wells. The former had held his chair continuously since 18(s, and the latter had served with a somewhat prolonged interruption by illness, since 1874. Both had devoted themselves with fidelity to the school, and by their ability and learning had left their impress upon it. But while we are called to part with these experienced teachers, we have the pleasure of welcoming back Professor Walker, who was connected with the school before either of the two Professors just named. He filled the Kent chair of Law from 1859 to 1876. It is with special pleasure that we see Professor Olney and Professor Elisba Jones sufficiently recovered from prolonged illness to undertake their work again this year. Professor D Ooge is absent on leave as the Director of the American School of Archa ology at Athens for the coming academic year. The appointment of...
