Catherine Young, Vice President and newly-anointed Democratic nominee, is surging in the polls. The race is on against GOP candidate Jerusha Hutchins, folksy charmer and blonde beauty, who is the darling of the far-right Liberty Party. Jerusha is married to a powerful televangelist minister and has a lot of support. But with political wunderkind Zane Zarillo running her campaign, Catherine is bound to hold her lead. Suddenly a medical emergency puts the President in the hospital and forces Catherine to act in his place a perfect opportunity for her to show her Oval Office stuff. Just when her election looks like a sure thing, Catherine's romantic fling from decades ago comes to light. Will the American public accept a woman with a past Blackmail, a cat-and-mouse chase through the streets of D. C. , and a hostage crisis bring the new and old media circus to a frenzy as sexual politics and racial tension collide in this sizzling campaign season thriller. Amazon Kindle bestseller in political fiction. 50,000...
