

Transitions in Retirement (Paperback)

By Frank E Cahill

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Most adults in the US experience three transitions in their retirement lives. Around the age of 55, their dreams of retirement begin in earnest and they begin to plan and prepare for retirement. But the job is far from done after they enter retirement. There are dozens of activities to juggle, which may involve health care and investment decisions, and dealing with new types of taxes to report. Finally, a last transition becomes apparent after they have enjoyed the leisure for few a years, and they realize it is time to make arrangements to leave their estates to family and friends. Transitions In Retirement discusses these phases in the natural division of three parts. IN Part 2: Addresses health care decisions, with a focus on Medicare Plans, followed by a detailed review of taxes that affect seniors. It ends with considerations for retirement income, especially fixed income methods for retirees. Explains the Medicare system and compares Medigap plans with Advantage plans. Reviews income taxes that most seniors experience in retirement, and how to minimize the tax bite. Includes a discussion of investment...
