This reads like what might happen if Freud and the Joker collaborated on a rewrite of Blake Butler s There Is No Year. A weird and swerving book that nonetheless says a lot about the hidden dynamics of families. - Brian Evenson, author of A Collapse of Horses When grandmother dies and the front door disappears, one family will have to explore the inner dimensions of their house, themselves, and each other in order to find a way out. Bradley Sands novelette reimagines the idea that a house becomes a home, and instead asks what happens when a family becomes a house. Liquid Status is family drama reimagined as a surreal, existential nightmare.
