In the early morning hours an extraordinary young woman dies horribly--as a topless Kate Moss peers down from a billboard over rain-spattered Houston Street. Detective Darlene O'Hara of the Seventh Precinct has a drinking problem and a massive chip on her shoulder. When her case--the very bad death of a beautiful, brilliant teenage NYU student turns high-profile, her case is handed to a legendary NYPD Homicide detective, but she refuses to let it go. So she investigates without authorization, and it is dragging her from the ivory towers of academia into the very worst corners of the city--where shocking secrets that destroyed this teenager now threaten to obliterate O'Hara's life and career."
