

My Sister s Bones (Paperback)

By Cathi Hanauer

Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At sixteen, Billie Weinstein has plenty of problems: She s the only Jewish girl living in the all-Italian neighborhood of West Berry, NJ; she s trying hard to please her know-it-all father who listens to opera at full volume and drives full speed, and her too-accommodating mother who is either taking care of Billie s father, or Billie and her sister, or the two dogs; and on top of everything else, her older sister Cassie goes off to college, leaving Billie to fend for herself. And now Billie s studying for the SATs. The task her father has given her is to learn twenty words a day, read the New York Times at least twice a week and watch Masterpiece Theatre whenever he tells her to, mostly because he likes it. Then Billie discovers her sister s secret: Cassie is battling anorexia and Billie s parents excuse Cassie s weight loss as stress due to the competitive atmosphere at college. Billie knows something is drastically wrong with her sister; something that could be fatal. This novel is touching...
