Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Society and Babe Robinson, or the Streets of Old San Francisco: A Play This play of Society and Babe Robinson or the Streets of old San Francisco, by Ella Sterling Mighels, a daughter of the Golden West, will appeal to all classes, the rich and the poor alike, at home and abroad. And in book form it will make a unique addition to collections of California. The first and the second acts of the play were written as a short story, and it was read in public at an entertainment given for the benefit of the San Francisco Girls Union, the first non-sectarian attempt made for the helping of working-girls in our city. This was given at Irving Hall on Post street, near Kearny, on Tuesday evening, June 9th, 1885. The author was applauded to the echo. Not only that, she was also urged to turn her chapters into a serial for the San Franciscan, but that weekly journal had passed away before the tale was completed. Always she met someone on the street who...
