Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Condition: New. 160 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. Book Description The stories in this book are from the life of an unusual woman. She is unusual because of the many different kinds of things that have happened to her. After her husband died, she raised her three children in very difficult circumstances in spite of the many setbacks she faced. From the stories from her childhood through her days working for Texas newspapers, she covered everything from macaroni to murder. As a mission interpreter for the National Presbyterian Church U. S. A. , she traveled into jungles where there were grass fires and snakes and angry people. She also traveled where there was love and concern and caring people. Some of her life stories are extremely humorous and some are tragic. Her two books, To the Ends of the Earth and A Little Bit Farther are stories from the many mission areas in various countries around the world. Marj also had a daily column in the Big Spring Herald called Riding Fence and now emcees a radio talk show by the same name. Her travels took her into Communist Russia when it was still behind the...
