OCLC Number: (OCoLC)540583345 Subject: Terrorists -- Identification -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . of individuals who are misidentified as the subject of a watchlist record. We continue to monitor the Secure Flight program at the Congresss request. In our October 2007 watchlist report, we recommended that the FBI and DHS assess the extent to which security risks exist by not screening against certain watchlist records and what actions, if any, should be taken 23 in response. The agencies generally agreed with our recommendations but noted that the risks related to not screening against all watchlist records needs to be balanced with the impact of screening against all records, especially those records without a full name and other identifiers. For example, more individuals could be misidentified, law enforcement would be put in the position of detaining more individuals until their identities could be resolved, and administrative costs could increase, without knowing what measurable increase in security is achieved. While we acknowledge these tradeoffs and potential impacts, we maintain that assessing whether vulnerabilities exist by not screening against all watchlist records - and if there are ways to limit impacts - is critical and could be a relevant component of the governments ongoing review of the watchlist process. Therefore, we believe that our recommendation continues to have merit. As we reported in October 2007, the federal government has made Identifying Additional progress in using the consolidated terrorist watchlist for screening Screening Opportunities purposes, but has additional opportunities to use the list. For example, and Determining Whether DHS uses the list to screen employees in some critical infrastructure There Are Clear Lines of components of the private sector, including certain individuals who have Authority for...
