BEFORE YOU (PAPERBACK)*DOWNLOAD

Dedalus Press, Ireland, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Loss and memory. The poems of the first section of Irish poet LEEANNE QUINN'S debut collection explore the intimacies of a sibling relationship, and revisit it from a distance travelled since, where new experience is the earth's irreproachable / response to your absence. Other poems intersperse this main narrative, inspired by a variety of subjects, from Gertrude Stein to the Drogheda-born artist Nano Reid, natural disasters to the complex territory of broken relationships. Pain is evoked, sensed never far from the surface, but the telling remains oblique, the particulars refusing a simple summary or conclusion. Life goes on, in what one of the poems in the second section calls this awful business of living, a variant on a phrase by Elizabeth Bishop whose letters, in counterpoint to the book's first section, prompt and provide an external departure point and reference.
