Page 21 This booklet was about salvation, and who is on your throne. It didn t try to sell you on the Rapture or on the date. It gave you the flashlight and sent you on your way to look. God Bless, as always. Re: the review by K7GDM I find it interesting that Christians can hate, (a 1-star review is a hated it review). Jesus never hated anything or anyone, but rather, he presented himself as a role model, calm, stable, and compassionate. These christian haters should really seek a mental health exam, as their extremism could present a danger to society. This booklet is about salvation through Jesus, the born-again experience. If you are looking to evolve spiritually, and become a spiritual role model, then I recommend this book. Back in the early 90s, a seventh-day adventist nursing supervisor named Pete drove a truck into an abortion clinic. Had Pete been screened for mental health, perhaps his hate would have been detected and he could have received treatment, rather than spending the next 5 years of his life in prison.
