No matter what type of functional appliance clinicians. it should be able to provide clinicians with tools that enhance treatment. Of course. is the key to maximum biological response function. but as orthodontic scholars. we should also Applied Biology. to do our utmost to make the organization to produce the best response. even orthopedic surgeon orthopedic surgery General Questions should do the same. We spent too much time to focus on the appliance and the brackets. with the ring. the mechanical properties of the arch wire and plastic. Vision get lost along the direction of the limitations in their own areas of expertise. We can learn a lot of help to * try into a successful knowledge from other disciplines. I would like to repeat the statement I made in the beginning of this chapter: the key is not the tool itself. but the method you use the tool. the timing. because the type of cases. the patient's age and the treatment course of treatment. More comprehensive understanding of human physiology will allow us to not only better able to move the teeth. but also enables us to become better maxillofacial orthopedic physician.
