The candidate demonstrates excellent judgement and a high degree of independent thinking. , abstract: In the United States of America, a high degree of attention has been paid to the issue of how to legislate abortion. During the past two decades, notions of the so-called 'Culture-Wars' emerged, referring to an increasing polarization of the American public over the abortion topic along the lines of religiously motivated 'pro-life' and secular 'pro-choice' activist groups. This paper is an effort to analyze from a psychological perspective how religiosity mediates people's attitudes towards abortion legislation, the hypothesis being that the more embedded a person is in an increasingly conservative religious community, the less likely she will be to experience cognitive dissonance over ambivalent topics like abortion, because she adheres to the amplified religious position on it. It was found that..
