Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Proceedings of the United States National Museum, Vol. 5: 1882 The extension of the scope of the National Museum during the past few years, and the activity of the collectors sent out in its interests, have caused a great increase in the amount of material in its possession. Many of the objects gathered are of a novel and important character, and serve to throw a new light upon the study of nature and of man. The importance to science of prompt publication of descriptions of this material led to the establishment, in 1878, of the present series of publications, entitled Proceedings of the United States National Museum, the distinguishing peculiarity of which is that the articles are published in signatures as soon as matter sufficient to fill sixteen pages has been obtained and printed. The date of publication being plainly expressed in each signature, the ready settlement of questions of priority is assured. The articles in this series consist: First, of papers prepared by the scientific corps of the National Museum; secondly, of papers by...
