

A Fabulous One-Year, Thirty-Five-Thousand-Mile USA, Canada, and Mexico Road Trip!: America in the 70s! (Paperback)

By Richard Castagner

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In my book, I transport my reader into another world they may or may not ever occupy themselves, a road trip they may only dream about. I try to keep my book positive, adventuresome, humorous, and fun to read. Do not take this book too literally; I have added many touches to the road trip that one associates more with fiction than nonfiction. The book remains true in the way all good novels or narratives are true. That is, it mainly provides an authentic vision of America at a certain time (the 70s) combined with some references to today (the 10s). This journey described in this book might be considered a classic example of the heroic journey, the myth that lends an essential structure to so much narrative literature. In the traditional myth, a hero-whoever he might be-abandons his safe haven and pushes forward into the wilderness in order to test himself against the odds. In the course of this testing, he discovers his own rich resources and strengths. The story inevitably involves a returning that completes the cycle: the point...
