CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 44 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Welcome to paradise: the South Pacific of the 19th Century, full of ancient island cultures and Euro-Western colonialism. In this latest installation of her Trio Tales series, author Judith Cullen joins with native Tongan storyteller Illaisaane Filikitonga to share stories steeped in the history of a kingdom, and with an intimate connection to family, and the power of belief. An Island Miracle Earth re-imagines tuku fonua and the journey of King Tupou I to this historic act of dedicating all of Tonga to the Christian God, rather than bow to pressure from colonizing foreign powers. An Island Miracle Water recounts how a man of faith places himself, literally, in the path of ongoing sorrow for the residents of the small Tongan island of Falevai. An Island Miracle Fire faces the reality of life on a volcanic island, where life and creation vividly part of the same continuing cycle. When a community of believers is charged with a task that seems completely insane, will they have the faith and courage to believe, when even the island itself seems to challenge them. The Trio Tales series are fiction monographs featuring three short stories on a single theme, and are intended to be portable, enjoyable. They also make great gifts. She writes to tell a story, not to fill a page. And that effort shows. Reader Review, A Trio...
