Devon Shaw is a popular film student at Paradise City College, whose reputation as something of a player precedes him. While he is popular, he is also talented and hardworking, and he wants to make sure that his scholarship pays for his film studies since his parents, who are newly divorced and just starting a new period in their own lives, don't take his studies very seriously. Now that Hans is at Paradise City College, he fully intends to do that. That is until he runs into Devon, an attractive student who of course reminds him of his old online friend turned crush. When Devon asks him to model for some pictures, Hans says yes, thinking that this is going to be his first experience with a man. But...
