Is the cost of love worth dying for? Shaun Banks is back and she is ready to discover and give out certified certificates of death, but what does that mean? Shaun, an independent high roller to love isn't under estimating love. She classifies her search for a six figure love but doesn't realize she deserves more. Now caught up in a tragic event she now specialized herself to be lost. Homeless to her mind Shaun runs into the very tastes of sex, lies, deception, love and revenge that she never thought she's have to face. Empowered by the thought of Real Love she motivates herself to push through her illness and begin her quest for answers to past truths, doing it alone. Crediting Death as her motive she embarks her way to expose some good gruesome discoveries that were secrets to her but well-known objectives to her friends. Find out what happens in this chilled soap opera narrative that will have you on edge of your eyes and on guard with your heart as you go with Shaun to find out how she intends on damaging the lives of the ones she loves by issuing out real life death certificates.
