Not illustrated. 1851 Excerpt: .in the absence of the Treasurer, the Committee on Mileage were authorized and directed to pay the Commissioners accordingly. The Committee on Church Extension made a report on the subject of Church Erection, for the consideration of which the Assembly went into an Interlocutory Meeting until 12 o'clock. After which, the Report of the Committee, having been amended, was adopted, and is as follows: -- The Committee on Church Extension submit the following Report: That they have had submitted to them numerous papers touching the subject of church erection. These papers all indicate a wide-spread want existing, especially in the newer and more sparsely-settled portions of the country. As examples in point, take the following facts: The Presbytery of Peoria and Knox reports nine churches, and only six church edifices--three of their churches being without houses of worship. The Presbytery of Milwaukee reports four churches destitute of houses in which to meet and worship God. The Presbytery of Schuyler reports seventeen churches, and only twelve houses for divine worship. The Presbytery of Harmony reports ten churches, and six church edifices, with a joint interest in three others. The Presbytery of Marshall reports twenty churches, and eleven church edifices, leaving nine without a tabernacle. Of these, however, three have houses of worship in process of erection. The Presbytery of Franklin reports twenty-three churches, and only fifteen church edifices. The Presbytery of Scioto reports twenty-two churches or regular preaching-stations, and only ten houses of worship. The most...
