

Geordie Bell s Muggles (Paperback)

By Val R Brown

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Who s Geordie Bell? In his own words, he s his own man and a very lucky man. What are muggles? Muggles is the old Tyneside word for marbles, Geordie s favourite game. Combine Geordie Bell and muggles, and you have another good yarn from author, Val R. Brown. Geordie Bell, born just after WWII, grew up in a coal mining community, where it was customary, on leaving school, for sons to follow their fathers and forefathers to work down the pit. That became impossible in Geordie s village when the pit closed down as part of the decline of the north-eastern coalfield. Long-term unemployment and poverty loomed large until the community, including Geordie, stood together as one to take some control over their own destiny. Although Geordie took an active part in community activities, he was never destined to work down the pit. A bright boy, he seized opportunities that came his way and became a highly regarded member of the legal profession. His route wasn t always easy and could have been totally different if it hadn t been for...
