Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Julie Chettle (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. It s a big, sometimes scary world and Folly s adrift it alone or is he? The little lion cub has hopelessly lost his way, separated from his parents and unsure where to turn. Happy Misunderstanding: How Folly Gets His Name tells the tale of the lost Folly s quest to reunite with his family and the characters he encounters along the way. Author Ginny Buller and Illustrator Julie Chettle bring to life a vivid world children will relish and parents will cherish. Folly s antics mimic many of the real-world quandaries in children s lives, and his unique solutions can t help but inspire! Children will delight in Folly s fanciful journey, as well as in educational elements deftly woven into the book: a fun seek-and-find on every page, page numbers artfully drawn out in adorable flower-petal illustrations and Folly s own unique approach to problem-solving serves as a lesson in friendship, acceptance and creative coping. For ages 3 to 8.
