Synclectic Media, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Richard Dore is a pioneer in the field of contemporary healing. His career in alternative medicine began many years ago, when he started to explore his own subconscious mind and its programming. Among the first things he learned was the mind is a major factor in disease. Your life experiences reflect your inner programming. You have total control over your subconscious mind and you can use it to heal. Richard has developed a new healing paradigm for humanity-one that actually works. It heals disease and clears traumatic events from the past. He has explored the workings of the mind in illness by using techniques borrowed from hypnosis. What he learned has become a major theme in his work and in this book. Modern medicine has become mired in protocols that are not effective; it is now the third leading cause of death in the United States. Richard turned to modern biology to better understand disease and its cure; he discovered that both ancient medicine and modern biology agree on the cause and cure of disease. Humans are made of energy and healing is the result of an energy shift at the genetic and cellular levels. How that shift is created is the subject of this book.
