Synchronista LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The twenties was a decade like no other. Between these covers, you will find 45 coloring pages with 60 different examples of clothes popular in the early 1920s. As you will soon see, the flapper style commonly portrayed in movies and on TV really represents just a fraction of what was considered to be in vogue at the time. Flappers were all about independence, confidence, bucking tradition, and forging new paths. Young women rebelled against their mothers and grandmothers corsets and petticoats, instead adopting sassy fashions featuring straight lines that emphasized slender frames. While the dress silhouettes were usually sleek, the fabrics and ornamentation used for the clothing often made up for such simplicity. Patterns - including stripes, stylized florals and other elaborate motifs - adornments like fringe, sequins and other exquisite details were prized. Popular accouterments included parasols, fans, wraps and scarves, feathered headbands and all manner of hats. It s time to give these outfits from the Roaring Twenties the color and the verve they have been missing for the better part of a century!.
