Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New Book. Howard Garis (1873-1962) was a young reporter for the Newark Evening News when he first started writing stories for children about a lovable rabbit named Uncle Wiggily. Calling them bedtime stories (apparently the first time the term was used), he created a widely syndicated series that eventually totaled hundreds of tales. This volume ? the only inexpensive paperbound edition available ? includes eleven of the best stories from the series, relating the long-eared cottontail s adventures with the Lost Chipmunk, the Black Cricket, the Doll Doctor, the Lazy Duck, the Pinching Bug, and other appealing characters. Printed in large, easy-to-read type and enhanced with twenty-seven new vignettes, these delightful stories will captivate today s young readers as much as they did youngsters in the early twentieth century.
