Thursday, March 3.--The open sea, fine weather, moderate breeze, and awnings spread, as it is still hot in the sun. The young gentleman who was at Mrs. Almy s, Mr. G, survived to be brought on board. His friends say, that after one day s waiting, if the Cahawba had not arrived Tuesday night, he would not have lived till morning. He was brought on board in an arm-chair. The Purser, though a stranger to him, has given up his room to him; and the second mate, who knows his family, treats him like a brother. His first wish being accomplished, he now says that if he can live to see his home and to receive the sacrament, -he will be content to meet his end, which he knows is soon to come. Friday, March 4.--To-day, the sea is high and...
