A quaint preacher once said to parents, as an encouragement to instruct their children in the knowledge of God and spiritual things, Fill the water pots with water, and Christ may turn it into wine. But let us seek and expect the early acknowledgment, by every child, of its obligations to God, and its acceptance of the gospel. What sorrow and misery we may prevent, in ourselves and others, if we are faithful as Christian parents. It is a fearful thing for parents to send forth into society a family of unconverted children Their last account will be rendered, not with. joy5 but with grief. II. Christian Parents, If They Are Faithful, SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED AND COMFORTED WITH REGARD...
