He paused short; for as he waved his arm aloof in the earnestness of his speech, the rough hair-shirt grazed his shoulder by the motion, and reminded him that his feelings but ill-accommodated with the garment of penitence which he wore. Leave me for a short space, added he, waving his hand for the attendant to depart, who, without replying, quitted the chamber. Left alone, --with slow and measured step, and arms folded on his bosom, did Becket pace the apartment; while a thousand contending emotions rushed through his bosom, like the headlong waves struggling and foaming to overleap the narrow outlet which...
